

April 1, 2025

Sir John Baclaocos,

Good Evening

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to inform you that my son, Joseph C. Arenas, will not be able to attend your class tomorrow, April 2, 2025 due to a swollen foot which make him difficult to walk comfortably.

We are monitoring his condition, and I will ensure that he catches up on any missed school tasks. Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

MARIZZA C. ARENAS
Mother
